

Women and the Construction OF PEACE in Colombia

Carol Rojas

from the Feminist Antimilitarist Network

Presentation & Participatory Workshop

Tuesday, October 3rd

6:30–8:30pm

Predolin 115

Edgewood

College

Carol is a popular educator who accompanies formative processes with men and women who live in working class neighborhoods.

Her primary objective is to “demilitarize and undo the patriarchy that exists in peoples’ bodies and minds so that they can transform their territories based on an antimilitarist working class feminism and the commitment towards the democratization of the Colombian state, which is a key idea for the construction of peace.”

Sponsors: COR, Center for Global Education, Women’s & Gender Studies, Madison WILPF, Wisconsin Network for Peace & Justice, Colombia Support Network, and Witness for Peace Midwest. Contact Susan Pastor (608) 663-6768